

Nicholas Juskiw

Attended Monroe Community College and Rochester Institute of Technology.

President, CEO and Stockholder of Trident Precision Manufacturing, Inc., a world class contract manufacturer employing 150 employees in Rochester, New York. Trident, under Nick's management has bestowed numerous awards. The most prestigious include the Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award and the New York State Excelsior Award.

Began career as an apprentice toolmaker at a local manufacturing company eventually securing an engineer position at Xerox Corporation before founding Trident when he was in his early thirties.

Recipient of numerous awards including Small Business Person of the Year.

Recognized for his extensive community servicing including sitting on the boards of The United Way, United Cerebral Palsy, Rochester Business Alliance, Golisano Children's Hospital and the HSBC Regional Board.

Known for his loyalty to his employees and community, he founded the Trident Charitable Fund. This fund has raised over $300,000 for local charities through the efforts of Nick and his employees.

Past Board Member of the RTMA.